

IDAHO'S SOUS GATHER AT THE BIER OF STEUENBERG

Funeral of the Martyred Ex-Governor Attended by Foremost Citizens of the State.

Eloquent Eulogy Pronounced by W. E. Borah—Evidence Accumulating Against Hogan, Who Is Said to Have Manufactured the Deadly Bomb at Caldwell.

Boise, Ida., Jan. 2.—The funeral of ex-Governor Steunenberg was held today in Caldwell, his home town. There was a very large attendance. A special train carried some 200 persons from Boise. Among those present were the governor and two ex-governors, all the other state officers, the justices of the supreme court, four of the district judges of the state, a former member of congress, a former delegate to congress and a great number of prominent private citizens.

Impressive Services.
The services were held in the Christian church, conducted by Rev. W. J. Boone, a Presbyterian clergyman, assisted by Elder Snyder from Walla Walla, of the Seventh Day Adventist faith, with which Mrs. Steunenberg affiliates. The church was beautifully decorated, there being many floral offerings. The feature of the services was a brief oration by W. E. Borah, at the request of members of the family. Mr. Borah paid a touching tribute to his dead friend and continuing took occasion briefly to speak of the public services of the dead and the debt of obligation under which he placed the state. In this connection he delicately called attention to the fact that, through political influence, the only Couer d'Alene dynamiter convicted as a result of Governor Steunenberg's work was set free, and the governor now lies still in death at the hands of a man or men supposed to have been actuated by hate growing out of the faithfulness of the dead in suppressing lawlessness in that section.

Idaho Will Avenge.
He said in part: "But let it not be forgotten in a day or a year that the demands of the law must be satisfied—violated with impunity never. Wherever the offense is surely located, whomever it may affect and be fastened upon, there will be neither compromise nor cowardice. Idaho will not permit this humiliation to be ameliorated by time or wiped out by influence. The citizen who from this hour does not become the untiring searcher for the author of this crime carries already in heart the germs of treason. He is not a part of us—the commonwealth disowns him. Idaho today offers to the nation the inspiring character of her great governor, and from this hour will claim recognition wherever fame gathers to scroll the names of those who sacrificed all for the civic integrity of our institutions. But in the months or years to come we will give to our sister states the proof that his example was not in vain—justice will bring to bar the cowardly assassin, and Idaho will in part pay to the memory of her dead her immeasurable debt of gratitude. No man wending his way to his home and loved ones, peering through darkness and storms to the lighted windows, where cheer and welcome await his coming, will dare forget that Idaho's standing and manhood's safety is yet in question, and will be until the laws shall have written the merciless sentence for those who bring us to this unspeakable sorrow. Neither suspicion nor rumor nor passion shall have sway, but justice nevertheless will be done. The manhood of Idaho is behind it."

EVIDENCE CONCLUSIVE.
Hogan Said to Have Made the Bomb in Saratoga Hotel.
Boise, Ida., Jan. 2.—Under date of Caldwell at 9 p. m. the Statesman's representative sends the following: "Captain Swain has just made the following sensational statement to the representative of the Statesman: 'You may announce to the world that we have conclusive evidence that the bomb used in the assassination of Governor Steunenberg was manufactured in room No. 9 of the Saratoga hotel (the room occupied by Hogan), and that the details of the plans were probably formulated there.' It was further stated by the captain that the evidence accumulated against Hogan is overwhelming. He did not feel justified in making much of it public, but he was willing to state that one feature of it was the finding of Hogan's shoes that he wore on the night of the murder. He would not say where these shoes were found, but stated that they were wet when discovered. The shoes had marks in the soles and the nails were found to fit perfectly into

SENATOR BLACKBURN IS DITCHED

Kentucky Toga Goes to Judge Thomas H. Paynter, Who Was Backed by Governor Beckham—Nomination Carries With It Certainty of Election.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 2.—Judge Thomas H. Paynter of the Kentucky court of appeals was nominated on the first ballot taken in joint caucus tonight to select a Democratic candidate for United States senator to succeed J. C. S. Blackburn. The nomination carries with it the certainty of election, as the Democrats have more than two-thirds of the combined membership of both branches of the legislature. The vote was as follows: Thomas H. Paynter, 59; Senator J. C. S. Blackburn, 34; W. C. B. Haldeman, 10; Congressman David H. Smith, 1. Necessary to nominate, 53.

ODELL'S CANDIDATE BADLY BEATEN

James W. Wadsworth, Jr., Nominated for Speaker by Republican Members of the New York Assembly, Merritt Getting but 14 Votes.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 2.—James W. Wadsworth, Jr., of Livingston county, son of Congressman James W. Wadsworth of the Thirty-fourth congressional district, and son-in-law of the late John Hay, secretary of state, was nominated tonight by the Republican caucus for speaker of the assembly. His democratic opponent will be George M. Palmer, of Schoharie, who for many years has been minority leader of the assembly floor.

Death Makes Vacancy for an Idaho Citizen
Washington, Jan. 2.—George A. Rahm of Weller, Ida., appointed on the capitol police force in 1891 on recommendation of Senators Dubois and Shoup, died Saturday of indigestion and will be buried here tomorrow. The sergeant-at-arms says he will appoint any Idaho man to the vacancy whom Senators Dubois and Heyburn agree upon. The place pays $1,100.

Foreman of the Jury Among Those Indicted
Helena, Mont., Jan. 2.—It developed today that the United States grand jury which adjourned last Saturday indicted among others Joseph P. Woolman of Helena, former United States marshal for Montana, for illegally fencing public lands in Teton county. A feature of the case is the fact that Mr. Woolman was foreman of the grand jury up to the time an indictment was returned against him, when he retired in order, as he said, to hamper the jury. He gave $1,000 bail to plead Saturday.

New Wyoming Drink.
Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 2.—Private John Murphy of the Eleventh infantry, stationed at Fort Russell, Wyo., and two other soldiers, may die as a result of a New Year's spree, during which they drank cocktails composed of bay rum, lemon juice and hair tonic.

CADETS HAZED BEYOND DOUBT

Upper Class Men at Annapolis Continually "Did Things" to the Plebes.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 2.—The court-martial proceedings against Midshipman Stephen Decatur, Jr., of Portsmouth, N. H., charged with the hazing of Midshipman Isaac N. McCrary of Texas, and Gaylord Church of Pennsylvania, both fourth class men, were continued this morning.

Meeting of New Council.
Recorder J. B. Moreton called the council to order at 12 o'clock. Councilman Rulon S. Wells was the only absent member of the new council. L. D. Martin of the First was made temporary presiding officer and listened to the speech of T. R. Black, who nominated Mr. Davis for the presidency of the body.

More Trials Coming.
It is understood the "Hungarian band" reference to which was made by Judge Advocate Harrison is one of the creations of the hazing system which the court of inquiry has discovered, and that quite a number of the upper class men may be compelled to face charges based on the band's compulsory concerts.

"Throw 'em all out!" is the slogan of the new city administration, which took hold at noon yesterday. This means that none but "good Americans" may hope to continue in the employ of the city. A few of the older employees are to be retained temporarily, but probably only long enough to show the new officials how to conduct the affairs of their offices.

MURPHY'S WORD WITH MAYOR THOMPSON
"Now, Fred, you can have any job you'd like."
"All right, I'll take Dick Eddington's job."
Accordingly Fred M. Schulze, guard at the Utah state prison, is moving his lares and penates inside the limits of Salt Lake City so that he may become eligible to appointment as a sergeant on the city police force. Mr. Schulze's change of residence will probably be completed today.

And other "old-timers" are trimming their sails for the good weather ahead of them. "Joe" Raleigh, "Nat" Rhodes, J. N. Eslinger and others of the old guard have wired for fresh boxes of cigars and are sipping up their mystery solvers so as to be ready to detect as soon as the head of the police force is announced by Mayor Thompson.

Ezra's state of mind of itself constitutes a splendid field for the efforts of the detectives. Any one who can arrive at what is "back of the matter" has an opportunity to establish a reputation.

The mayor continues to emulate the sphinx. As a matter of fact, the sphinx "ain't got nothin' on Ez" in the way of keeping the mouth in a state of shutness. Candidates for appointments are as much as sea as the outsiders.

It is hinted that George A. Sheets will be chief of police, and that he does not particularly want the place, but would prefer to be head of the detective force. It is also said that the talk to the effect that United States Marshal B. B. Heywood is after the chieftaincy of the bluecoats is an evanescent dream, as the stalwart Benjamin is nurturing a hope that he will be reappointed to his present post.

But the police chief's job need not wear itself out in search for somebody to take it. There is Major H. P. Myton, who would look like a lion in a blue coat, with two rows of buttons, and Samuel Barlow, brother-in-law to the mayor and a veteran on the force. Either of these could be tempted, it is thought. The mayor will probably release a portion of his list of appointments at the meeting of the council Monday evening. There is nothing certain about it, however. So far as can be learned from the outside, the mayor has taken nobody into his confidence, but is following the line that earned him a reputation once before. He is saying nothing, even to "Jack" Lynch.

REJECTED LOVER'S TERRIBLE CRIME

Matt Styer, of Caledonia, Minn., Kills Pearl Wheaton and Fatally Wounds the Unfortunate Girl's Mother, Sister and Himself.

Caledonia, Minn., Jan. 2.—Infatuated with Pearl Wheaton, daughter of S. N. Wheaton, one of the richest farmers in southern Minnesota, and rendered desperate by her refusal to marry him, Matt Styer, a dental student at the University of Minnesota, broke into the Wheaton home near here last night and shot Pearl, her sister, mother and himself. Pearl is dead. The others injured are fatally wounded. When he entered he was met by Ruth Wheaton, who, armed with a revolver, attempted to protect the remainder of the family. Styer wrested the revolver from her and shot her twice. He then turned on Mrs. Wheaton, shooting her twice, and bounded up the steps to the room of Pearl. Breaking in the door of her room, he shot the girl through the heart and then shot himself. When help arrived Styer was found with his head on the girl's breast, she dead and he barely alive.

The only other inmate of the house, a child of 10 years, escaped by leaping through the window. Mr. Wheaton was away from home at the time. Matt Styer, murderer of Miss Pearl Wheaton, died at 9 o'clock tonight from gunshot wounds inflicted by himself after the attempt at triple murder. Mrs. Wheaton and Miss Ruth Wheaton, who were shot near the heart, are in a critical condition, but attending physicians hold out hopes of recovery.
